SATURDAY, JUNE 24, 1876.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

S. F. Hill, a Western Union Telegraph operator at Silver City, Nevada, committed suicide yesterday morning by poison.

A son of Thos. Roach, a merchant of Petaluma, was drowned in Petaluma creek yesterday. The body was recovered, but all efforts to restore life proved unsuccessful.

The World estimates the strength at St. Louis as follows: Tilden, 201; Hendricks, 170; Bayard, 23; Allen, 44; Parker, 8; unknown, 19.

The Times' St. Louis correspondent intimates that Tilden is out of the race, and thinks that Faine, of Ohio, is the most available candidate.

The Times' Washington dispatch says that Judge Pierpont has been subpoenaed by the Judiciary Committee to appear on Tuesday to testify in regard to the Mulligan letters.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says that a report is current there that Judge Davis refuses to be a candidate before the St. Louis Convention, and that Hendricks will not be anybody's Vice-President.

The Illinois delegates at large are, it is believed, generally Tilden men. Of the other delegates, eighteen are said to be for Tilden, twelve for Davis, six for Hendricks and two undecided.

The records of the San Francisco Health Office show that the city is at present exceptionally unhealthy. The deaths last week numbered 130, of which 71 were those of children under five years of age. This week, up to Thursday night, the mortality has been 122, of which number 56 were under five years of age, with a prospect of reaching a much higher figure than last week. Eight cases of small pox made their appearance on Wednesday and Thursday.

The London Daily News publishes a letter from Constantinople, dated the 15th, giving the details of atrocities committed in Bulgaria during the insurrection and which is still continuing with unabated fury. The writer says all movable property has been plundered, houses and villages burned, and old and young men, women and children, indiscriminately slaughtered.

THERE is a prospect of some trouble at and around Indian Wells. Since the passage of the act giving the Railroad Company the alternate sections the Government has established an Indian reservation at the Wells, and there are quite a number of Indians collected there. Many of these Indians have been in the employ of the Railroad Company for some time, and have proved themselves good workers, laying track with the thermometer marking a degree of heat which no white laborer could stand. Since the location of the Indian Wells station a number of persons have gone there and built huts on the land reserved for the Indians. The greater portion of these structures are occupied as places to sell whisky. The Railroad Company permits nothing of the kind on its land. It seems to be a case demanding the immediate attention of the Indian Bureau.

To Whom the Credit is Due.

In an article on the Chinese question, the Express, of Thursday evening, credits Hon. P. A. ROACH with being the original mover on the Pacific coast against Chinese immigration. This is not correct with regard to the first appearance of the question in politics. In 1852, Mr. Roach opposed a bill to legalize Coolie contracts. But it was not until some years after that parties took sides on the issue. The Republican party, under the leadership of GEORGE C. GORHAM, favored Chinese immigration, and rallied under the battle cry of "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." The Democrats have always opposed the coming of the Chinese among us, and to a distinguished resident of Los Angeles is due the credit of placing the party on record on this question. At the Democratic Convention of 1869, General JOHN R. MCCONNELL, chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, moved that a committee be appointed to draft an address to the people of the United States on Chinese immigration. The motion prevailed and a committee was appointed composed of General JOHN R. MCCONNELL, Judge J. H. BUDD, of Stockton, Judge JAMES H. HARDY, TULLY R. WISE, DANIEL GELWICKS and Judge RYLAND, of San Jose, who adopted the address written by General MCCONNELL. The address was published, and copies of it are no doubt still in existence. General MCCONNELL also drafted the plank against Chinese immigration which was incorporated in the Democratic platform of the year above named. These are the facts, and we give them in order to show that the Democratic party has always opposed the coming of the Chinese among us, and to place the credit for the first individual political effort where it properly belongs.

Figuring.

We stated the other day that it was such an easy thing to figure out the election of a candidate on paper that any one could do it, and already we have the evidence that even the editor of the Republican can accomplish the feat. In his issue of Wednesday evening he gives us a specimen of his skill which proves that facts and probabilities, no matter how strong, do not interfere with his calculations. He throws States about with the ease, something of the grace and not a little of the illusion, that an Indian juggler handles the globes, and the result of his work is two hundred and twenty-four electoral votes for HAYES. There is nothing doubtful to speak of in the achievement of this latest figure. New Jersey is the only doubtful spot in his estimation in this broad nation. The Democrats are thrown as a morsel one hundred and twenty-seven votes, which is the aggregate of the Southern States. This is not much, but it is better than nothing, and as they might just as well have been thrown in with the others given to the Republicans, we are thankful for the small favor. New York, New Hampshire, California, Oregon, Connecticut and Indiana are all made to vote the Republican ticket notwithstanding their well known Democratic proclivities. These Republican editors like Republican officials are adepts at figuring. They have figured the country into almost hopeless bankruptcy, they have figured a heavy and galling load of taxation upon the people, they have figured the public money into their individual pockets, many of them have defeated the ends of justice by figuring themselves out of jail, and now they figure States Republican that cannot be induced to vote that ticket.

Still Harping.

We presume the Express of this city is imbued with the idea that it is manufacturing capital for itself by an almost daily repetition of its false charge that the HERALD is inimical to the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad proposition. We are inclined to the opinion that the rumor that our evening cotemporary has been subsidized and that its weekly deficits are now paid by the owners of the Santa Monica and San Vicente ranches which lie at the water end of the Santa Monica road, is not entirely without foundation, but we care nothing about it, nor need the readers of that paper, farther than the fact that it deprives it of that independence so necessary to honest and influential journalism. If the Express has accepted pecuniary aid from the few individuals who now claim its fealty and apparently control its columns, it has of course bartered away its liberty for means to maintain its existence, and it is therefore jealous of the perfectly independent position maintained by the HERALD. Tied hand and foot and compelled to obey the behests of the men to whom it has sold itself, what wonder that our cotemporary should, while cringing in its miserable servitude, whine and yelp at the HERALD? Let it go on. Pup-pies bay themselves hoarse at the moon, yet Luna continues her course. The HERALD is free and independent. It has and will continue to defend the people against the efforts of speculation and their organs to saddle upon them a subsidy debt for which they will never realize a dollar in return. The HERALD is a warm supporter of the Los Angeles and Independence scheme. We hope the road will be pushed into the interior and onward until it connects with the Union Pacific at Ogden. We hope that subscription books will be opened and that all who are able will take stock in the enterprise, and that such aid and encouragement will be given as will insure the early building of the road. But subsidy in the shape of lands we are opposed to, and we are independent enough to assert our position and maintain it against the subsidized Express and other advocates of a trick to mortgage the property of the people to a railroad company.

"Has His Price."

We have been assured by the Express, that even so great and good a man as Senator Jones has his price. He has built a road out of his own resources, and it is a success. Jones is human. He is in accord with your projects. He gives you the preference, but if the Southern Pacific or any other corporation offers him his price, he would not as not to take it, in case you do not help yourselves.

The objective point of the meeting at which this threatening language was used was to induce the people of Los Angeles to vote a subsidy of $400,000 to Mr. Jones' road, and we submit that the words above quoted cannot be a direct threat that if we do not come down with the demanded subsidy the "price" will be accepted from the Southern Pacific. Now we respectfully ask what assurance have the people of this and San Bernardino counties that this "price" will not be accepted after the $400,000 from our and the $300,000 from the others have been voted? If a perfectly satisfactory guarantee can be given that the road will be built and that it and its bonds will not be turned over to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, and the majority of the taxpayers express a willingness to impose this heavy debt upon themselves, we shall not offer a word in opposition, but until these important conditions are arranged, the HERALD stands the uncompromising opponent of subsidy to the Santa Monica or any other railroad.

Details of the Accident at the Tunnel.

SAN FERNANDO, June 23d.—A terrible accident happened here yesterday evening which resulted in the killing of one man, named John Conway, and the wounding of another, named Ten Chinamen. The particulars are as follows: The headings of number 3 and 4 tunnels are about 20 feet apart, both working in the same direction. The foreman of each heading have strict orders not to shoot until they notify each other, this done so as to avoid any or all accidents. Last evening the foreman of No. 4 heading sent an order to Conway, the deceased foreman of No. 3 heading, letting him know that he would discharge a blast at No. 4. At half past four o'clock Conway read the order in the presence of the white man who was wounded; after reading the order they both took powder and went into heading No. 3, and commenced loading a blast contrary to the orders of the rules and regulations. At twenty minutes past four the foreman of No. 4 discharged his blast, and whether Conway was killed from the effects of No. 4 blast or of his own no one can tell, as both blasts went off together. The coroner's jury returned a verdict that Conway came to his death by the explosion of a blast by his own carelessness and negligence.

A Sea Diego paper of the 22d has the following:

A report was received here yesterday from the storekeeper at Algodones on the Arizona road, that he found two dead horses attached to a wagon near that place. It was surmised that this team might belong to a man and his wife who have been peddling out in that country, and who were overtaken in great distress on the desert last week by Mr. Griffith, Road agent of Keens & Mitchell. On talking with Mr. Griffith that gentleman informed us that he thought the man and woman were all right; that he had supplied them bountifully with food and water, and left them at the terminal station of the railroad corps, where there was abundant store of barley for their animals. They meant to remain there a day or two. Mr. G. thinks the horses are his own. He was obliged to abandon his team on Wednesday last week, and in the intense heat, with his companion, walked to the river 35 miles distant. He had been making an experimental trip to the railroad terminus; but was soon tripped again. Both Mr. G. and the man with him nearly succumbed on that terrible tramp.

Col. Wood returned yesterday from Santa Monica, accompanied by the Allen sisters, seven in number. They will open the entertainment at the Opera House on Monday evening next.

Their reputation is known all over the coast, and in burlesque they stand in the front rank as juvenile performers. The entire public should give them a cordial welcome. Their performances are of both a chaste and unique character and can but be popular.

Messrs Eugene L. Sullivan of San Francisco, and L. M. Foulk, Commissioners appointed by the Government to examine and report on the sections of the Southern Pacific Railroad, called on the Herald office a few days since. Mr. Sullivan is the father-in-law of Senator Jones.

The Austin Reville of June 15th says: We are informed by J. A. Wright, who was over in that vicinity yesterday, that from Simpson's Park to Grass Valley the air is fairly darkened with grasshoppers. He rode his horse through millions of the insects, and for several miles was obliged to force his way through an atmosphere of grasshoppers. Mr. Wright is well known as a man of veracity—one whom the Sazarc Lyng Club would back without question—but the account he gives of the number of grasshoppers he saw yesterday sounds almost incredible. In Utah we have seen grasshoppers so thick that it was necessary to blast them out with giant powder in order to keep the roads open, but the mass would dull a drill in every two inches. The grasshoppers at Simpson's Park are, of course, not so thick as this, but from Mr. Wright's account they are so numerous as to render it necessary for a horseman to carry a mowing machine on the horn of his saddle in order to mow out a path for his horse.

Boca Beer.

Satter & Bayer of Congress Hall have a full supply of the celebrated Boca lager beer, which is kept constantly on draught. They are sole agents for Los Angeles County for this celebrated beverage. Call at the Hall, corner of Main and Requena streets, and sample it.

A Republican Club.

A child was born to the Republican party last night. It was an eight-pounder and they christened it the "Central Hayes and Wheeler Club of Los Angeles." Though a somewhat weakly child at the present writing it has yet given evidences of a very pugnacious spirit evinced in the apparent desire to scratch out its own eyes. But we will bet on the Republican baby and with judicious nursing it may prove strong enough to take a whipping next Fall.

At eight o'clock Col. Jno. O. Wheeler called the meeting to order. There were about twenty of the Simon-pure assembly in Judge Gray's office, besides a liberal sprinkling of the Dolly Vardens who carried flags and tom-toms in the late Independent line. There were also representatives of the bread and butter brigade, which gave an official air to the assembly; there were practical sore-heads and disappointed office seekers and, all in all

Birds of every feather,
On a common level
Flocking there together.

It was upon this motley group that Col. Wheeler cast his eyes over the rims of his gold spectacles and commanded order.

The first business before the meeting was the adoption of a constitution and code of by-laws. These were submitted by Mr. O. O. Trautman, who had been selected for the purpose at a preliminary meeting. The committee being an aspiring young attorney, took this opportunity to air his grandiloquence and verbosity. The document was longer than the moral law. It was read amidst the yawns and snores of the assembly, and when finished Mr. Bland (Independent) wanted to adopt it bodily.

Mr. ——— wanted it divided and acted on piecemeal.

Mr. Walter Moore, a patriarch in the tribe, offered some objections.

Col. Warner (Independent) couldn't indorse it in toto.

General Brierly (Simon pure) pointed out some weak points, and Mr. O. Trautman, rising to deliver a Ciceronian effort, denounced Brierly as a Republican. (Ye Gods! Brierly not a Republican.)

General Brierly, unable to swallow such an allopathic pill, protested his fealty to the party of Los Angeles for sixteen years past, and mildly suggested that such assertions looked like assurance in a young man who had been in the place only a few months. [Loud applause.]

Mr. ——— deprecated any unkind reflections. [Renewed applause and general sensation.] Things got hopelessly mixed and the Chairman, unable to entertain sixteen motions at one time, declared his inability to understand the question.

While Mr. Hazard (Independent), Col. Warner (Independent), Mr. Bland (Independent), Mr. Trautman (straight out), and Gen. Brierly (no Republican) were attempting to straighten matters and pending a second reading of the long drawn constitution and by-laws, we faded our tent like the Arabs and as silently stole away.

Our Highfliers.

The Republican notes the following list of fine stock in training at Agricultural Park:

Our first visit was to the section of stables under the charge of Mr. G. W. Leiby, a famous trainer and turfman. Mr. Leiby kindly showed us around and we saw his equine wonders, some of which have already made a record and a few green horses which will yet surprise the world.

Hope, a sorrel gelding, 9 years old, owned by Mr. Leiby with a record of 2:28, occupies a prominent place.

Tommy Gates a bay gelding, 5 years old, owned by L. J. Rose, but under Mr. Leiby's training, which won the Sacramento prize in colt stakes last Fall, is an animal of much promise.

Thomas H., a sorrel gelding, 7 years old, owned by Mr. Leiby, has no record, but the owner expects him to make his mark as a trotter.

Maggie Mitchell, a mare owned by T. D. Mott, has no record but her owner anticipates for her a brilliant future through Mr. Leiby's training.

Daisy C., a three year old roan filly, owned by Mr. Rose, and being trained by Mr. Leiby, is entered for the San Francisco and Sacramento 3 year old races.

Primerio, a black gelding 4 years old, by the Moor, owned by Mr. Leiby, is expected to make his mark at some early races.

A large 7 year old bay gelding, Cactus, owned by Judge Walker is being trained by Mr. Leiby for the $2,000 race with Bushy John, which takes place July 1st.

This finishes Mr. Leiby's stables and they are certainly the finest collection of horses ever seen in Los Angeles together.

We found old Vaughn occupying the post of honor. It is useless to describe him as he is the victor of a hundred hard fought races.

Bushy John, a black gelding 7 years old, by Rappahannock, will give Cactus a brush on the 1st of July.

Overland, a bay stallion, 5 years old of Membrane stock, is too well known to need special mention, and his progeny will soon be as noted as some of the most famous eastern stock.

Sedan, a promising 3 year old bay gelding by Echo owned by Dr. Wolf-weber, is one of the best colts in this section.

Major Mono, a bay stallion, 9 years old, a Stockton trotter, is being trained by Welch for his first appearance on the Park Track.

Charles Miles, a chestnut gelding, 5 years old, has no record, but is expected to make as good time as Recorder Miles did last fall.

After a consultation with Welch at the Park Hotel in which the usual compliments were exchanged, Mr. Gates turned his fast steed homeward and left us with the assurance of future civilities.

In quoting a late article from the Herald on needed sanitary reform the Santa Barbara Press remarks:

Santa Barbara is not the only city that is suffering from defective sewerage. Los Angeles, too, is complaining, through her papers. However disagreeable these facts may be to some when brought publicly forth in this way, they are far worse as they actually exist, hidden and half covered up, and poisoning the air we breathe and the water we drink. Los Angeles, so have we, and the cause can be traced directly to bad drainage. It is better to discover these things ourselves, and correct them, than to let others come among us and find them and distort the truth. And the trouble is, time makes them worse and more costly to subdue.

The Chinese Question.

The following opinion was rendered in the Supreme Court of the United States, at Washington (D. C.), on the 13th inst.

No. 478—Chy Lung, plaintiff in error, vs. J. H. Freeman, R. K. Piotrowski, Commissioner of Immigration, William McKibbin, Sheriff of the city and county of San Francisco: In error to the Supreme Court of California. The statute of California, which is the subject of consideration in this case does not require a bond for every passenger or commutation money, as the statutes of New York and Louisiana do, but only for certain enumerated classes, among which are "lewd and debauched women." But the features of the statute are such as to show very clearly that the purpose is to extort money from a large class of passengers or to prevent their immigration to California altogether. The statute also operates directly on the passenger, for, unless the master or owner of the vessel gives an onerous bond for the future protection of the State against the support of the passenger, or pays such sum as the Commissioner of Immigration chooses to exact, he is not permitted to land from the vessel. The powers which the Commissioner is authorized to exercise under this statute are such as to bring the United States into conflict with the statutes of California in this respect extends far beyond the necessity in which the right is founded, if it exists at all, and invades the right of Congress to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and is, therefore, void. Rejected.

Mr. Justice Miller delivered the opinion.

Gleanings.

[From the Evening Republican.]

Mr. G. A. Chapel and wife left for San Francisco yesterday.

Mr. Robert S. Forbes' body was sent to San Francisco yesterday.

Mr. L. Lichtenberger is building a fine house on Aliso street, next to the Philadelphia Brewery.

Judge Burdick sentenced a drunk yesterday to $10 fine; a larcenist to 30 days; a crazy man was sent to jail.

Dr. Shartridge, who has been speaking to good audiences in front of the Court House, speaks this evening and Sunday at 3 p. m., in the Court room. All are invited.

The Opera House Company publish a card in the San Francisco Figaro, in which they speak in glowing terms of the success of this popular place of amusement under the management of Messrs. Ryan & Wood.

The Turners will give one of their popular and highly enjoyable balls on the night of the 4th of July. The best music of the city will be furnished for dancing. Tickets to the ball will be $1, with supper extra.

The talented authoress and lecturer Mrs. C. M. Stowe, will deliver a lecture upon spiritual philosophy at the Court House Sunday evening. Mrs. Stowe is well known as one of the most successful healing mediums upon the coast as well as a writer of charming brilliancy and power. Go and hear her.

Some complaints were made in the Council Thursday evening that the plazas were not properly cared for. To set the matter permanently at rest we yesterday made a personal inspection of both the upper plaza and the Sixth street park. We found everything in apple pie order and the trees and shrubs all in a thrifty condition. The trees in the plaza are somewhat crowded with dust, which gives them a rusty appearance, but this cannot be avoided in such a locality. The soil is well worked and gives evidence of thorough irrigation. Mr. Tamiet, the City Gardener, has reason to be proud of his work. Especially in the lower park he has displayed great taste and skill in laying out the grounds in walks and drives. Of the several hundred trees and choice shrubs which were there planted last Spring, not one in fifty will fail to thrive. This fact alone is undeniable evidence of good care and must silence all complaints.

"Unquestionably the Best Sustained Work of the Kind in the World," Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED.
Notices of the Press.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind.—Boston Globe.

The character which this magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth and literary culture that has kept pace with, it has not the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. The Magazine has done good and not evill all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Some of the most popular of modern novels have first appeared as serials in this magazine. In all respects it is an excellent periodical, and fully deserves its great success.—Philadelphia Ledger.

"A Repository of Fashion, Pleasure, and Instruction."

Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED.
Notices of the Press.

The Bazar is edited with a combination of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveler.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the prudent matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the paternalists by its careful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the festive enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trustworthy as a fashion guide, its stories and essays, its poetry and squibs, are all ingratiating to the mind.—Chicago Evening Journal.

REASONS WHY

—THE—
REMINGTON FAMILY SEWING MACHINES

Are Superior to All Others.

FIRST—THEIR SIMPLICITY.
The use of them is very easily acquired, and any girl of ordinary intelligence is capable of keeping them in order.

SECOND—THE CONSTRUCTION of the Machine is such that it may be run at a higher rate of speed than any other Sewing Machine now in the market. In factories where the rate of production has been registered, over 1,000 Stitches per Minute have been attained with ease.

THIRD—THEIR DURABILITY
being so strong in all their parts and fitted with great mechanical nicety, and being free from the harsh jarring movements and friction so common to inferior machines, they will wear a long time without repair of any kind.

FOURTH—THEIR ADAPTABILITY.
By a simple change of the needle and tread they will sew the finest cambric or the heaviest leather.

FIFTH—THEY HAVE NO ROTARY CAMS,
Cog-wheels or levers, and make a noise, loud and harsh, or get out of order.

SIXTH—THEY HAVE AN ADJUSTABLE
Feed which may be raised or low red at pleasure.

SEVENTH—ALL THEIR MOVEMENTS are positive and they cannot be thrown out of time.

Manufactured by the Largest Manufacturing company in America, possessing a worldwide reputation in the manufacture of their machines, they afford a guarantee of perfection in work and construction.

No other sewing machine has ever been introduced so quickly and met with such rapid sale as the

REMINGTON

It arouses the jealousy, opposition and persistent misrepresentation of the older Sewing Machine Companies through their agents, and even the old Singer Company, through its agents devotes the largest part of its advertisements to show that it is not an improved Singer, and that its calculations are upon false basis.

"With malice toward none and charity for all," it will be the aim of the agent of the

to afford to all an opportunity of testing merits with those of any other, and let them make their own selection.
